

May 8th, 2015

Projects show how agriculture can handle climate variations

Initiative developed by the Asia Pacific Economic Cooperation (APEC) helps farmers to cope with the interference caused by climate changes.

Source: Scoop Independent News Media

Drought affects food system in California

Report details quite accurately how the effects of climate interference in California is causing a chain reaction that can harm the entire food America network.

Source: ThinkProgress

FAO warns of damage to agriculture and food security

A great collective effort is needed to tackle climate change, says the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations (FAO). If left unchecked, the food security situation will worsen further.

Source: AgroNegócios

Countries suffer from lack of water

Drought has led to dramatic situations in several countries. In the Philippines, agriculture and livestock are in state of public calamity. In India, farmers commit suicides.

Source: Esquerda.Net

This newsletter is produced by CEAGESP
Communication and Marketing Coordination.

www.ceagesp.gov.br

f ceagesp.official

e ceagespoficial